We agree to the following terms:

- Whitepine Studios will provide the venue and art activity for the non-profit charitable event. Both Whitepine Studios and the non-profit will promote the event on their social media accounts. The non-profit is solely responsible for any other promotional materials including but not limited to flyers, newspaper ads, and online advertising.
- Patrons will be required to register and pay in advance of the event. The non-profit will confirm the number of attendees and pay Whitepine Studios one week before the event.
- Whitepine Studios sets the price for the event and will donate back to the non-profit a percentage of the net proceeds to be payable to the non-profit one week after the event.
- The non-profit will have the opportunity to do a raffle, baskets, silent auction or any other fundraising allowed under the Michigan Gaming Control Board's rules and regulations. The non-profit organization is solely responsible for obtaining any required licensing for the event.
- The non-profit may provide non-alcoholic beverages and/or snacks to attendees. Drinks will be served in plastic or paper cups with lids.
- Whitepine Studios will provide the setup and clean up after the event. At the conclusion of the event, the non-profit must remove all fundraising materials including baskets, brochures, business cards and all other promotional materials.
- I consent to the terms and conditions of this consignment agreement as stated above.
