

"I must have flowers, always, and always."

~ Claude Monet

As one quarter of 2024 comes to a close, we find ourselves amidst the emergence of new life all around. While Michigan may offer us one final taste of winter, signs of spring are on the horizon: birds returning from their winter retreats, trees beginning to bud, crocuses poking their heads out, and the warmth of the sun teasing us with each passing day.

Spring Art Adventure Camp 2024/Summer Art Adventure Camps

We had an incredible week hosting 30 young artists during spring break. Creativity flourished, and new friendships blossomed. Now, we're gearing up for our Summer Art Adventure Camps, where each week features art inspired by a fun theme. Our camps cater to two age groups: 5-8 and 9-13.

At the end of each camp week, it's the moment our young artists have been eagerly awaiting all week. It is a chance to shine and proudly display their magnificent creations. It's always a joyous celebration!

Exciting news for this summer! We've introduced a one-week Ceramic Handbuilding Camp, which is sold out, and two additional half-day Ceramic Camps scheduled for the mornings during our short camp week starting July 1st and our final camp week on August 19th. Additionally, there are nine other opportunities for young artists to participate in our Summer Art Adventure Camp Series. Registration

Adult Workshops and Evenings Out

We had an absolute blast with our new acrylic pour class! Artists delved into three exciting techniques: the flip, the dip, and the circle. Stay tuned for the date of our upcoming workshop in May! Participation in these classes are limited so sign up early.

As the school year draws to a close and summer camp season approaches, we're winding down our adult workshops. We'll be back with fresh classes scheduled for the fall. Registration
